CHAPTER XXIII.

AN ACT

AUTHORIZING THE MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR TO GRANT TO OWNERS OF MILLS FOR THE MANUFACTURE OF SUGAR, LICENSES TO DISTILL SPIRITUOUS LIQUOR.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. The Minister of the Interior is hereby authorized to grant to any owner or owners of any mill for the manufacture of sugar, a license to distill spirituous liquor subject to the conditions and restrictions hereinafter set forth.

SECTION 2. All persons applying for a license under this law, shall before receiving the same file a bond, (in form similar to the following,) the same being always subject to the approval of the Minister of the Interior.

Know all men by these presents that we, ———, principal, and ———, surety, are held and firmly bound unto the Minister of the Interior for the use of the Hawaiian Government in the penal sum of One Thousand Dollars, lawful money, to be levied on our respective joint and several property in case the conditions hereinafter set forth shall be violated.

For the just and full payment of which we hereby jointly and severally bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators and assigns.

Sealed with our seals and dated this — day of —
A. D. 18—

The condition of this obligation is as follows: That, whereas, the above bounden principal has this day applied for a license to distill spirituous liquor in accordance with the law enacted on the — day of — 18—, and has complied with the requisitions of the said law, and has consequently become entitled to a license to distill spirituous liquor in accordance with the statute in such cases made and provided, for the term of five years from date; Now, therefore, if during the continuance of this license the said ——— shall not contribute to the violation of any of the laws of this Kingdom nor violate any of the conditions of this license, copy of which is hereto annexed, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise upon proof being made to the satisfaction of a Common Magistrate without the intervention of a jury, the penalty mentioned in this bond shall be forfeited and the license of the said ——— this day granted shall be void.

Given under our hands and seals the day and year above written.

In the presence of SECTION 3. Such license shall be valid for the space of five years, and before granting such license, the Minister of the Interior shall demand and receive at the hands of the applicant for the benefit of the Royal Exchequer the sum of Fifty Dollars, and at the expiration of one year from the date of said license the licensee shall pay Fifty Dollars further, and so on at the expiration of each year during the time of the license.

SECTION 4. All spirits manufactured by authority of this law, shall pay when withdrawn for consumption in this Kingdom an excise equal to the specific duty that is now, or may be hereafter levied on spirits of like strength of alcohol of foreign manufacture imported into this Kingdom. If withdrawn for export, the said spirits shall be subject to the same surveillance and restrictions to which liquors of foreign manufacture are now, or may hereafter be subjected when withdrawn for re-exportation.

SECTION 5. All spirituous liquor manufactured under the authority of this law shall be delivered into the charge and keeping of the Custom House authorities, and shall so remain until lawfully withdrawn for consumption or exportation by a permit of the Collector General of Customs or his deputy, and all the expenses of storage shall be paid by the owner of such spirits in like manner as though the same were of foreign manufacture and had been imported into this country.

SECTION 6. The licensee, or the manager of the plantation, or some person acting for and on behalf of such licensee or manager and acquainted with the facts, shall report to the Minister of the Interior, and to the Collector General of Customs, the quantity of spirits manufactured by him and delivered to the Custom House Authorities, each quarter and oftener if required, and shall at the same time subscribe an oath as follows or to the following effect:

I solemnly swear that the report hereinabove subscribed by me, contains a true account of all the spirituous liquors manufactured by me or by my authority on this plantation during the time set forth in such report. The subscribing of such an oath shall subject one so subscribing it to all the pains and penalties of perjury, provided the report so sworn to shall be proved to be untrue.

SECTION 7. Any persons introducing for consumption any spirits manufactured under the authority of this Act, without paying the excise thereon, shall be liable to the same penalties as though the same had been smuggled, and if any such person be an owner or an employee in a distillery the apparatus of such distillery shall be liable to confiscation and sale for the benefit of the Public Treasury.

SECTION 8. His Majesty the King in Privy Council shall have authority to make from time to time such regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this enactment, which He, upon the advice of a majority of those present at any duly called meeting of His said Privy Council, may deem requisite for the protection of the revenue.

SECTION 9. Whereas the bond provided for in the second Section of this Act runs for a long time, the surety may withdraw upon giving two months notice to the Minister of the Interior, and to the principal, and it shall be the duty of the principal in such a case to supply another surety, and upon his failing so to do his license shall be void.

Approved this 18th day of July, A. D. 1874.

CHAPTER XLIV.

AN ACT

TO ENCOURAGE STEAM NAVIGATION WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES.

Whereas, the maintenance of frequent and regular communication with foreign countries by steam, is important to the welfare of the Kingdom, and cannot fail to promote the prosperity of the Hawaiian Islands;

And whereas, to encourage such steam communication certain facilities should be offered; therefore,

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. For the purpose of encouraging the establishment of Steam Communication with Foreign countries, the Minister of the Interior, on behalf of the Hawaiian Government, is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to permit and allow any steam line or lines which may make regular trips and stoppages at the port of Honolulu, to and from foreign countries, to enter and leave and load and discharge freight and passengers at Honolulu on payment of lawful charges thereon, but without port charges for light houses, buoys, wharfage, or water from the Government pipes ; provided such water be not wasted, or used in washing decks.

SECTION 2. That for the purposes aforesaid, the Hawaiian Government will admit free of duty, coals, machinery and supplies required for the use of said steam line or lines, and all vessels arriving laden with coals, machinery, and supplies, imported by said steam line or lines for its own use, shall be exempt from port charges for light house, buoys, or wharfage; unless such vessel or vessels be only partially so laden, in which case they shall be exempt from such charges in the ratio of such cargo imported as aforesaid by such steam line or lines to the entire capacity of the vessel, such rates to be fixed without appeal by the Collector General of Customs. And all property of such steam line or lines shall be exempt from taxation. Provided, however, that such vessel or vessels shall be charged wharfage after they have discharged their coals, machinery and supplies, if they remain at the wharf twenty-four hours after such discharge.

SECTION 3. The Minister of the Interior is hereby authorized to set apart for the use of said steam line or lines, a lot or lots of land on the Esplanade for a coal depot, and to allow the storage of machinery and supplies imported for the use of said steam line or lines free of charge.

SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect and become a law from and after the date of its approval.

AN ACT

FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT AND AID OF ANY COMPANY NOW INCORPORATED, OR THAT MAY BE HEREAFTER INCORPORATED, FOR THE TRANSMISSION OF INTELLIGENCE BY ELECTRICITY.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. The Minister of the Interior is hereby authorized and empowered to permit and allow any Company now incorporated in any Foreign Country, or that may be hereafter incorporated in this Kingdom or any Foreign Country, for the transmission of intelligence by electricity, to construct lines of Telegraph upon and along the highways and public roads and across the lands and waters of this Kingdom by the appropriation of any trees growing by nature, or by the erection of the necessary fixtures, including posts, piers, abutments, or bridges for sustaining the cords or wires of said lines; provided, the same shall not be so constructed as to incommode the public use of said road or highway, or injuriously interrupt the navigation of said waters.

SECTION 2. The Minister of the Interior is hereby authorized to take up and set apart for the use of such Telegraph Company or Companies, sufficient land and premises for Telegraph Stations and other needful uses in operating said Telegraph line or lines, and to grant every facility for the landing of subaqueous cables, Telegraph cord or wires, instruments, apparatus, and all and every article, goods, wares and merchandise appertaining to the building of such Telegraphic line or lines and the transmission of intelligence by electricity, and such articles and merchandise shall be exempt from duties, and the vessel or vessels chartered, or otherwise specially engaged in the laying or maintenance of a Telegraphic line or lines, shall be exempt from all port charges except pilotage.

SECTION 3. If any person over whose lands said line or lines shall pass, upon which posts, piers or abutments shall be placed, or standing trees appropriated, or such person's lands shall be taken for public use by the Minister of the Interior for necessary stations and other needful uses in operating said Telegraphic lines, shall consider himself aggrieved or damaged thereby, upon sworn application to the Minister of the Interior, the said Minister shall appoint three disinterested persons who shall be sworn before entering upon the duties of their office, and any one of whom shall have power to administer oaths, to act as Commissioners to ascertain and determine upon the compensation to be made to the owner or owners, person or persons interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such real property as may be required for such Telegraph line or lines.

SECTION 4. The said Commissioners or a majority of them shall determine upon the compensation proper to be made to each of the parties claimant and interested, and upon filing of the certificate of their finding and appraisement with the Minister of the Interior the said Minister is hereby authorized to pay to such owner or owners or persons interested the sum of money to which he may become entitled by reason of such appraisement; such sum of money to be drawn upon any funds in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SECTION 5. The Minister of the Interior on receiving the certificate of appraisement may pay to the Commissioners such reasonable compensation as he may determine upon, and shall have power to fill any vacancy in their number from death or otherwise.

SECTION 6. Any person who shall unlawfully and intentionally injure, molest or destroy any of the said lines, posts, piers or abutments, or the material or property belonging thereto, shall on conviction thereof be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding one year, or both at the discretion of the Court before which the conviction shall be had.

SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect and become a law from and after the date of its approval.

AN ACT

TO PROVIDE FOR THE CODIFICATION AND REVISION OF THE LAWS OF THE KINGDOM.

Whereas, the existing laws of the Kingdom are defective in many essential particulars, and from continual amendments having been made therein are inconvenient of reference, and from various decisions having been made by the Supreme Court adopting in whole or in part the principles of the laws of other countries, the law has become doubtful;

And whereas, for the foregoing and other reasons it is expedient that the laws should be codified and revised; therefore,

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. That it shall be lawful for and His Majesty the King is hereby empowered to appoint three Commissioners whom His Majesty may deem competent for the purpose, to codify and revise the existing laws of the Kingdom, including the laws passed during this present session, adding notes and references to important decisions of Court, and to report the same to the next session of the Legislative Assembly.

SECTION 2. The sum of three thousand five hundred dollars is hereby appropriated for the expense of preparing such Code, which sum the Minister of Finance is hereby authorized to pay to such Commissioners in such sums as may be deemed proper.

SECTION 3. This Act shall become a law from and after the date of its approval.

Approved this 7th day of August, A. D. 1874.

AN ACT

TO QUIET TITLES IN LANDS CLAIMED BY RIGHT OF INHERITANCE.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. Any person claiming title in the fee of land by right of inheritance may file his sworn petition with any Justice of the Supreme Court, or of any Circuit Court, within the territorial jurisdiction of which Circuit Court the land so claimed is situated, but if there be lands claimed under the same title situate in two or more Judicial Circuits of the Kingdom, any Justice of the Supreme Court or the Circuit Court within whose territorial jurisdiction the deceased from whom the lands are derived, had his residence, may have jurisdiction; and the said petition shall set forth as follows, to wit:

First. Name and residence of petitioner.

Second. Location and brief description of land claimed.

Third. Whether or not the petitioner is in actual possession by deed or otherwise with claim of ownership of fee; the names and residences of persons who are in such possession.

Fourth. Name and residence of ancestor who last died seized and possessed of said land as in fee, or under land commission award, Royal Patent, or under presumptive title, the date and place of such ancestor's death, and if intestate or not, and if widow, children, or statutory heirs survived him, if so, name them fully, with their residences.

Fifth. Names and residences of parties claiming title in said land if known to the petitioner.

Sixth. Prayer for process to claimants to come and show cause why petitioner's claim shall not be confirmed by decree of Court, and for public notice to all concerned.

SECTION 2. On payment of costs required, process as prayed for shall issue, returnable before such Justice of the Supreme Court or to the Circuit Court, sitting in Banco at the regular term of Court, which shall ensue next after the expiration of twenty-one days from the service of such process on the parties claiming such land; notice of such petition and time and place ordered for hearing the same, shall also be published in the English language in an English newspaper and in the Hawaiian language in a Hawaiian newspaper, in Honolulu, for not less than three weeks before the first day of term at which the petition shall be in order for hearing; in no case shall such petition be heard, until the foregoing provisions shall be complied with, and an affidavit of publication of such order be filed.

SECTION 3. Such petition shall be heard by such Justice of the Supreme Court or by the Circuit Court in Banco, at the regular statutory terms of the Supreme Court or Circuit Courts, and at no other times and the proceedings shall be had according to the usual course of proceedings in Equity by viva voce evidence or by interrogatories and cross-interrogatories duly filed, and the evidence of parties to the suit or in interest may be received.

SECTION 4. If the said Justice of the Supreme Court or the Circuit Court, shall be duly satisfied that the petitioner's or other claimant's claim is substantiated in whole or in part by legal evidence, he or it, may issue a decree setting forth the proceedings had in the cause and adjudging the petitioner or other claimant to be entitled to said land in fee in whole or in part as may be shown, and enjoining all persons from interfering therewith.

SECTION 5. If no appeal be duly taken from such decree, or if appealed from, when final decree is made, a copy thereof shall be filed by order of the Court with the Registrar of Conveyances within sixty days of the date of said decree, who shall record the same in books of record kept for the purpose, and such record shall be notice to all persons of such decree, and such decree when so recorded, or a certified copy thereof, may be pleaded in bar of any subsequent action brought by parties or privies of the original proceedings hereinbefore provided for.

SECTION 6. Appeals from such decree may be taken by any party to such proceedings within ten days after the same shall be rendered, due notice of the rendition thereof being given, by payment of all costs accrued and on depositing with the Appellate Court Ten Dollars for costs thereafter to accrue; appeals will be taken on the record which the Justice or the Circuit Court that first hears the cause, will make or cause to make including a statement of the evidence; and at the hearing on the appeal new evidence may be introduced by either party, except that witnesses who testify before the Justice or the Circuit Court below, shall not be allowed to testify on appeal except by permission of the Appellate Court for good cause; appeals shall be from the single Justice or the Circuit Court to the Supreme Court in Banco; no person shall be a party to the appellate proceedings who was not a party to the proceedings before the Justice of the Supreme Court or in the Circuit Court below, but the Appellate Court if satisfied that any person claiming title in the land, was improperly debarred or prevented from being heard before such Justice or the Circuit Court without fault of his own, may remand the cause for re-hearing before such Justice or the Circuit Court below, on such new party paying the costs of such re-hearing.

SECTION 7. The said Justice of the Supreme Court or the Circuit Court, having jurisdiction of the cause shall have the power to partition the Real Estate according to the decree made, to compel the appropriate conveyances therefor, and to issue writs of possession when necessary.

SECTION 8. The costs in proceedings under this Statute shall be the same as in the Probate Courts. They may be awarded or apportioned according to the discretion of the Court, and execution may issue therefor.

SECTION 9. Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to wills previously made by owners of property, nor to cases which have been adjudicated upon by the Supreme and Circuit Courts.

Approved this 1st day of August, A. D. 1874.

CHAPTER LIV.

AN ACT

TO AUTHORIZE A NATIONAL LOAN, AND TO DEFINE TO WHAT USES SUCH LOAN SHALL BE DEVOTED.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. That His Majesty the King is hereby authorized to borrow, on the credit of the Hawaiian Government, within six years after the passage of this Act, a sum not exceeding a Million of Dollars, or so much thereof as may be deemed desirable, for the purposes in this Act hereafter set forth; for which His Majesty may cause to be issued Coupon Bonds, Registered Bonds, or Treasury Notes, in such portions of each as he may deem advisable, subject to the provisions of the second section of this Act. The bonds to bear interest not to exceed seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, redeemable in not less than ten nor more than twenty years.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, that stock shall be issued for the amount so borrowed bearing interest at seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum; and the Minister of Finance is hereby authorized, with the consent of His Majesty the King, to cause to be prepared Certificates of Stock to be issued, which shall be signed by the Minister of Finance, and countersigned by the Registrar of Public Accounts, and sealed with the Seal of the Treasury Department, and made payable to the parties lending the money represented by such certificates or their assignees; which certificates may be transferred on the books of the Treasury, under such regulations as the Minister of Finance shall establish. Provided always, That when coupons for the payment of interest shall be attached, any certificate to which such coupons may be attached, may be assigned and transferred by delivery of the same, without being transferred on the books of the Treasury. And the Minister of Finance may also issue, by authority of His Majesty the King, in exchange for coin, as part of this loan, or as payment for salaries, or other dues from the Hawaiian Government, Treasury Notes, payable in five years from the date thereof, of a denomination not less than fifty dollars, bearing interest at seven and three-tenths per cent. per annum; provided, that the Treasury Notes of this description, thus issued, shall not exceed in the aggregate, at any time, One Hundred Thousand Dollars. And provided always, that no person shall be compelled to take such notes in payment for salary or other dues if he should be unwilling so to do. And the faith of the Hawaiian Government is hereby pledged for the due payment of the interest and the redemption of the principal of the Stock and Treasury Notes in coin, when said interest and principal may become due.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, that the Treasury Notes, authorized by the preceding section to be issued, may when they shall be returned into the Treasury, be re-issued, or others substituted for them, at any time during the entire period of twenty years, for which this loan is authorized; provided always, that all such notes shall be ultimately payable within the aforesaid term of twenty years.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, that the Minister of Finance is authorized to pay out of any moneys in the Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, such sums as may be necessary for the preparing of Certificates of Stock and Treasury Notes, and for negotiating and accomplishing the loan authorized by this Act; provided always, that when the loan shall have been accomplished, the expenses aforesaid shall be charged to the account of the said loan.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, that the Minister of Finance with the approval of the Board provided for in Section 6 of this Act, may negotiate the loan authorized by this Act, or any portion of it, in any foreign country, if it shall seem most advantageous so to do ; and in such case he may make the principal and interest payable at any designated place in any foreign country ; and he is hereby authorized to appoint such agent or agents as he may deem necessary for negotiating such loan under his instructions or paying the interest thereon, and to fix the compensation of such agents, and to prescribe all such rules, regulations and modes regarding the negotiation of the loan, and its transmission to this country, as he may deem necessary. And the Minister of Finance, with the approval of the said Board, is further authorized to dispose of the Bonds by this Act authorized, at such rates as may be deemed by him for the public advantage.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, that whereas the loan by this Act authorized is intended for the payment of the existing national debt whenever the same may become due, and the assistance of the agricultural and other productive interests of the country, therefore, whensoever the said loan shall be accomplished, in whole or in part, His Majesty's Cabinet and a Committee of three persons from the Privy Council of State, appointed by His Majesty the King in Privy Council, shall constitute a Board, with full power to lend any portion of the same on promissory notes, secured by mortgage on real estate, or on the products of the soil or manufactures of this country, or on machinery, whether home made or imported ; provided always, that the advances made on produce or manufactured goods shall not exceed two-thirds of the market value thereof at the time such advance may be made. And the Board by this Section constituted, shall have full power to make such conditions regarding insurance, rate of interest, time and place of payment of interest, or other conditions to secure the re-payment of the sums so advanced, as may appear to them advisable, and the Minister of Finance shall report, at each session of the Legislature the sums so advanced, and likewise the amounts received.

SECTION 7. Be it further enacted, that such portion of the money realized from the loan by this Act authorized, as may by the Board authorized by the 6th Section be deemed advisable, may be devoted to the building of warehouses for the reception of produce, and for the promotion of steam navigation between the islands, and the aid of immigration. And the securities received by the government, as in the 6th Section set forth, shall be preserved intact as a fund wherewith to pay the debentures given for the loan, and shall be used for no other purpose whatsoever.

Approved this 7th day of August, A. D. 1874.

CHAPTER LVIII.

AN ACT

TO AMEND THE LAW IN RELATION TO THE ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF TAXES.

Be it Enacted by the King and the Legislative Assembly of the Hawaiian Islands in the Legislature of the Kingdom assembled.

SECTION 1. That Section 490 of the Civil Code shall be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

“SECTION 490. The Minister of Finance, with the approval of the King, shall appoint annually, on or before the first day of July, an Assessor for each Taxation District of the Kingdom, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of said Minister, to make, on or before the first day of September, a faithful Assessment of all the Taxes imposed by law within their respective districts, and to furnish an accurate list of the same, according to blank forms furnished by said Minister, which shall exhibit the names of all persons assessed, and the different items of Taxation charged against them. In case of non-residents, the list shall state the residence of Tax Payers, if their residence is known, otherwise such residence must be described as unknown."

SECTION 2. That Section 492 of the Civil Code shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 492. It shall be the duty of the Assessor of each district to call at the usual place of residence or business of every Tax Payer within such district, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of Taxes each person is liable to pay; or to give public notice, by written or printed advertisement, to the inhabitants of the different settlements or convenient points thereof, to meet him at a specified time and place within such settlements or points for that object; and if any person, when so called upon, or notified shall decline or refuse to give a list of the persons residing with him liable to Taxation, or of his or their animals, liable to specific Taxes, or of any property belonging to him or them, subject to Assessment, or shall decline to make oath to the accuracy of the list of persons, animals, and other property he is required to furnish, the said Assessor may make such according to the best information within his reach, and the same shall be binding upon all persons interested."

SECTION 3. That Section 493 of the Civil Code shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 493. Such Assessor may, in his discretion, administer the following oath to any person who shall give him a list of persons, animals, or property of any description liable to Taxation, as prescribed by law:

"You do solemnly swear that the list of persons residing with you, and of animals and other property in your possession, or owned by you, liable to Taxation which you have given is true; so help you God.

"Any person refusing to take the oath aforesaid shall be fined not exceeding Fifty Dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days, in the discretion of the Court, on conviction of such refusal before any Police or District Justice.

SECTION 4. That Section 494 of the Civil Code shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 494. Whenever such Assessor requires a list as aforesaid, and no person shall be found to furnish the same, the Assessor shall leave a notice at the residence or place of business of the Tax Payer when he resides in the district, or post up a written or printed advertisement at some public place in the vicinity, requiring such Tax Payer to furnish such list on or before the first day of September next ensuing, and in case such list is not furnished on or before such date, the Assessor shall proceed to make out a list according to the best of his knowledge, which shall be binding on all parties."

SECTION 5. That Section 495 of the Civil Code shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 495. It shall be the duty of the Assessor of each Taxation District of this Kingdom, on or before the first day of September in each year, to compute and deliver to the Governor of their respective Islands, two copies of their Tax list as hereinbefore prescribed, one of which shall be immediately forwarded by the Governor to the Minister of Finance."

SECTION 6. That Section 14 of an Act to amend the law in relation to the Assessment and Collection of Taxes, approved June 30, 1860, shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 14. The Police Magistrate, or District Justice where there is no Police Justice, and two disinterested persons to be appointed by the Minister of Finance shall constitute a Board of appeal for each Taxation District of this Kingdom from the decision of the Assessor of Taxes; Provided always, that where the Police Magistrate or District Justice shall have been appointed Assessor of his district the Minister of Finance shall appoint a substitute to act in his place on the said Board of appeal."

SECTION 7. That Section 2 of the Act entitled An Act to amend An Act entitled An Act to amend the law in relation to the Assessment and Collection of Taxes approved July 29th, 1872, shall be, and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SECTION 2. The members of the Board appointed by the Minister of Finance, shall receive out of the Public Treasury, compensation for their services while on the Board, at a rate not exceeding five dollars per day for each day's actual attendance, and where a substitute for the Police or District Justice is appointed as provided in Section 14, as aforesaid, the said substitute shall be paid by the said Magistrate or Justice, at the same rate as the said appointees of the Minister of Finance."

SECTION 8. The Assessor of each Taxation District shall on or before the first day of September in each year, give written notices to those owners of real estate within their respective districts who are non-residents of such district and within this Kingdom, describing the property assessed to them, and stating the proposed valuation for such property.

SECTION 9. That Section 503 of the Civil Code be, and the same is hereby amended to read as follows :

"SECTION 503. The said Collector shall call on each Tax Payer at his residence, or usual place of business, or otherwise give notice to the Tax Payers, to meet him at convenient points, or settlements of the district, in the months of September, October and November, to demand payment of the Taxes assessed as aforesaid; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to pay his Taxes, when so called upon or notified, until the last day of November, the Tax Collector may levy the same by distress upon so much of the goods and chattels of such person, as he may deem sufficient for the payment of Taxes and expenses of collection, and sell the same upon the order of the District Judge or Police Magistrate, after a public notice of five days. In case no property can be found whereon to levy, then if such person be able bodied, may, by sentence of said Judge or Magistrate, be imprisoned at hard labor until he discharges the amount of his Tax by labor on the public roads, or other public works, at the rate of twenty-five cents per day.

SECTION 10. That Sections 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, of an Act to amend the law in relation to the Assessment and Collection of Taxes, approved on the 30th day of June, 1860, and the Act entitled "An Act to amend an Act entitled an Act to amend the law in relation to the Assessment and Collection of Taxes," approved the 29th day of July, 1872, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 11. This Act shall become a law from and after the date of its approval.

SECTION 2. The Minister of Finance shall credit the appropriations of the last Biennial Fiscal Period all the amounts appropriated by the Act, approved the 29th of July, A. D. 1872, and remaining unexpended on the 31st day of March, A. D. 1874, not otherwise re-appropriated, and such amounts shall be deemed no longer available for the objects for which they were originally appropriated.

SECTION 3. The Minister of Finance shall continue to pay the salaries appropriated by this Act, the compensation of Soldiers and Constables, the compensation of School Teachers and the current expenses of the Bureau of Education, the expenses of the Fire Department, of the Supreme and Circuit Courts, Exchequer Bills and Government Stocks, and the interest accruing thereon, until the 30th day of June, A. D. 1876, unless new appropriations are made before that date.

SECTION 4. The Minister of Finance shall not cause or allow to be paid from the Treasury any money for objects not provided for by this law ; Provided, however, that all sums temporarily deposited in the Treasury, for which Certificates of Deposit are issued, and the interest thereon may be paid when due, without special appropriation for that object.

SECTION 5. It shall be lawful for the Heads of Departments, in cases where special appropriations may fall short, to apply to same the surplus of other special appropriations in the same Department, not required to be expended, so as to make up the deficiency; each Head of Department duly accounting to the Legislature for such transfer; but in no case shall appropriations for Internal Improvements in one Gubernatorial division be transferred to another.

SECTION 6. No person holding more than one office for which salaries are provided, shall be authorized to draw for more than the salary of the highest grade of office held by him, if the salary of any office held by him shall amount to Two Thousand Dollars or more per annum, and he shall be entitled to no other or further compensation.

SECTION 7. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

Approved this 1st day of August, A. D. 1874.
